

THE INSTITUTE FOR PRIESTLY FORMATION

A Public Association of the Faithful in the Archdiocese of Omaha

BELOVED SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR REMEMBERS IPF

The Institute has received a generous gift from the estate of Msgr. William Lyons, a priest of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, who died in November 2011 at the age of 81. Msgr. Lyons had most recently served for eight years as a spiritual director at the Pontifical North American College. Prior to his assignment in Rome, he had spent many years in his home diocese faithfully ministering in parish, education, campus ministry and seminary assignments. He had been director of the Newman Center at the University of Missouri-St. Louis for nearly thirty years and a full-time faculty member of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary, St. Louis, for nearly 10 years.

Msgr. Lyons was a good friend of IPF

Msgr. Lyons followed with great interest the growth of the Institute as well, ever since his days on the faculty of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. Those ties remained strong as he was assigned to the North American College. Msgr. Lyons followed with great interest the growth of the Institute and was one of the first to send a congratulatory note to Father John Horn, S.J., when he was named rector of the seminary in St. Louis.

So that the memory of this wonderful priest and dedicated spiritual director might be preserved for future generations, Msgr. Lyons has been enrolled in the Institute's Pope John Paul II Fund for priests. The account remains open for friends wishing to honor him with a gift in his name.

IS THERE A PRIEST WHO IS A SPECIAL PART OF YOUR LIFE?

The Pope John Paul II Fund for Priests is a wonderful opportunity to honor a special priest in your life and at the same time support the mission of the Institute for Priestly Formation.

"For over 50 years, Fr. Thomas J. Halley, S.J. was an important part of my family, whether it was bringing communion to my invalid grandmother, sitting up all night in the hospital with my dying mother, co-officiating my marriage, or concelebrating my father's funeral. He prayed with us, listened to us, shared meals with us, and was our friend. I will always treasure that he loved us and was always there for us, just like Jesus."

- Lawrence A. Dwyer, Omaha

Many individuals like Larry have honored priests who have affected their lives by opening and funding an IPF Pope John Paul II Fund account in their name. The gifts are used by IPF to support the spiritual formation programs offered to diocesan seminarians and priests who have a deep desire for a closer relationship with Jesus, similar to the priests being honored.

REV. RICHARD GABUZDA
Executive Director

Dear Friends,

Over 200 individuals will soon arrive here in Omaha to participate in one of our four summer programs of spiritual formation. Seminarians, priests and seminary faculty will receive a warm welcome and will be invited to grow closer to the Lord in the days and weeks spent with IPF.

The opportunity to participate in these programs, which for many becomes a life-changing experience, becomes possible only through the gifts and sacrifices of the many individuals and groups whose names are recorded on the pages of this report. When we allow the imaginations of our hearts

Expectations Exceeded

"My expectations of the program were not only met, they were far exceeded! I would highly recommend, even implore my brother seminarians to take advantage of this great opportunity, both for their own sake and for that of God's people, their future parishioners."

*— Jamie Mueller, Seminarian

to ponder this vast network of grateful participants and faithful supporters, we see a "conspiracy of love" on the part of the Holy Spirit who brings the desire of seminarians, priests and seminary faculty to grow and to learn, together with the desire of many individuals and groups to provide the means for this to happen. The pages of this report represent that bond of gratitude and generosity.

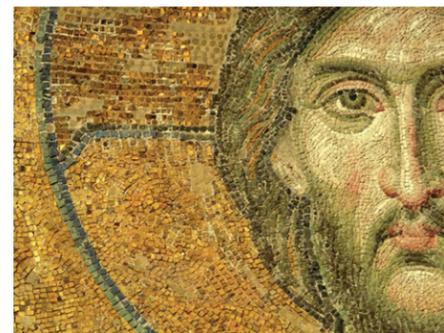

Special thanks go to the many who have responded so enthusiastically to the Pope John Paul II Fund for Priests. It was only one year ago that we launched this initiative. The number of priests honored and the number of people desiring to honor priests expresses the deep affection that Catholics have for the priests who have faithfully served them and their families.

Likewise, we want to express our gratitude to our hosts here at Creighton University as well as at the University of St. Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary who partner with us year after year and offer their continual support for our programs in Omaha and in Chicago.

May these pages be a reminder of the beauty of the ever-growing family of the Institute for Priestly Formation and an invitation for us all to be joined in prayer for one another. May the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, continually guide the Institute and generously bless all those who make our mission possible.

Gratefully in the Lord,

Rev. Richard J. Gabuzda
Executive Director

RECENT IPF EVENTS

Over 300 IPF supporters attended a Lenten Morning of Reflection on March 9th in Omaha. Into your Hands I Commend My Spirit was presented by Fr. Rich Gabuzda, IPF's Executive Director, tor, Deacon James Keating, Director of Theological Formation, and Kathy Kanavy, Director of Spiritual Direction Formation.

IPF was presented with the prestigious St. John Vianney Award from the National Conference of Diocesan Vocation Directors. The award, given only four times in the past ten years, is made to organizations or individuals who are making "a truly outstanding contribution to vocations by responding to a demonstrated need or issue". Pictured here are Msgr. Rob Panke, Rector of Blessed John Paul II Seminary in Washington, D.C., Fr. John Horn, S.J., Rector of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary in St. Louis, IPF's Deacon James Keating, Fr. Rich Gabuzda, Kathy Kanavy, and Rose Sullivan of NCDVD.

Alumni gathered at the Cenacle Retreat Center in Clearwater, Florida for a retreat led by Fr. Tim Gallagher, O.M.V. Retreats are offered twice a year to alumni of IPF programs. Alumni come together to renew their enthusiasm for the priesthood and their love for Christ.

March 25th marked the 5th anniversary of IPF becoming a Public Association of the Faithful. An anniversary Mass was celebrated in Omaha, Nebraska Chapel at St. Cecilia's Cathedral followed by a breakfast. Members of IPF renewed their commitment to the Institute.

The Blessed John Paul II Seminary in Washington, D. C. was the site for an alumni reunion in January. Alums from various IPF programs came together for an hour of Eucharistic Adoration and prayer before the opening Mass for the annual March for Life. Alumni enjoyed the heavy hor d'oeuvres meal before heading to the all-night vigil at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception.

Msgr. Richard Wolbach was honored with the John Paul II Award for Priestly Service at the 10th annual Celebration of Priesthood Banquet held in Omaha in April. Monsignor was a young Marine during World War II and landed on the beaches of Iwo Jima with his platoon. He served the Archdiocese of Omaha in a variety of assignments including the chaplaincy at the VA Hospital before retiring. He is pictured here with Archbishop George Lucas, Fr. Rich Gabuzda and a Marine Corps honor guard.

FALLING DEEPLY IN LOVE WITH GOD

Yes! I'd like to help IPF cover the costs of one seminarian attending IPF this summer!

As with all educational institutions, there is a gap between what IPF is able to charge dioceses for seminarian tuition, fees, room and board and the actual cost of the programs. The gap continues to grow each year. Please prayerfully consider closing the gap by donating on-line at <http://priestlyformation.org/support-the-vision/> or through the mail using the enclosed envelope.
