IPF Associates are to embody and cultivate a receptivity to the Living Word of God, a joyful, humble and obedient acceptance of the Church's Magisterium, a transforming devotion to Jesus' Real Presence in the Eucharist, a frequent celebration of the Sacraments of Eucharist and Penance and a sincere love for the diocesan priesthood.

Associates of IPF are those who have a heartfelt desire to support the charism and mission of IPF and its programs. They offer a prayerfully considered, specific commitment and availability to IPF as an expression of this desire.

Specific means by which associates incarnate their commitment include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Daily relational prayer
- Frequent reception of the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Penance
- Intercessory prayer for the mission of IPF
- Commitment of support and availability to IPF where possible

I understand this is to be an ongoing commitment, renewed each year.
